Nafferton Village Heritage Trail and beyond...

Children from Nafferton Primary School have spent the last year researching and producing a heritage trail for our village. The children are very excited to announce that due to generous funding from the village, two large notice boards have been erected around the village. One is next to the bus shelter on Driffield Road and the other is outside the main entrance of the Primary School. The children would like to thank John Allred for helping them with their research and to Jean & David Holmes for working so hard to make the notice boards possible.

Here are the current members of the school's heritage group examining one of the boards.

This year the school's heritage group project is, 'Village Voices – memories of a Nafferton education.' They want to interview people who have been a pupil at a Nafferton school. The children have written a set of question they wish to ask including, 'What games did you play at playtime?' and, 'What was your favourite lesson and how was it taught?'

If you would like to be interviewed by the children about your memories of being a pupil in Nafferton please contact:

Nafferton Primary School, Westgate, Nafferton, Driffield East Yorkshire. YO25 4LJ

Telephone: 01377 254307

E-mail: nafferton.primary@eastriding.gov.uk

Please spread the word, so if you know anyone that went to school in the village please encourage them to get in contact. The audio recordings of the interviews will be eventually available on the school website. Please get in touch, the children would love to hear from you.

A NEW CO-ORDINATOR REQUIRED FOR THE NAFFERTON NEWSLETTER

In issue 100 (October 2018) one of the three co-ordinators of the Nafferton Newsletter, John Gledhill, hinted that he should stand down, well now due to health problems he needs to be replaced by a new able body. As I'm sure you all know, the Newsletter is a bi-monthly production and the co-ordinators are basically responsible for delivery via some 40 plus volunteers. So we are looking for an interested party, male or female, to come forward, someone who obviously likes/loves Nafferton and will be happy to support the Newsletter. I should stress that the position is voluntary, and the Newsletter is non-political / non-commercial i.e. no commercial advertising but instead tries to be very supportive of all Nafferton based clubs, churches and organisations and of course the Parish Council which helps to finance the Newsletter. To get more insight as to what is involved, please do not hesitate to have a word (or two) with me, John Gledhill on 254354. I can assure my successor that the job is very rewarding in that you are helping to keep villagers well advised of what's going on. (254354)

Neighbourhood Watch

Neighbourhood Watch (NHW) continues to grow in the East Riding both in towns and villages helping communities to feel safer and become more resilient. NHW is so much more than 'curtain twitching' these days with groups enjoying social contact and having much wider community safety interests than just crime. These include things like 'Good Neighbour Schemes' and 'Emergency Planning' including events such as severe weather and helping people to stay safe. East Riding Council's Neighbourhood Watch lead is: Maureen Yates, Community and Crime Reduction Resilience Officer for East Riding Council. Tel: 01482 391013. Maureen will welcome any contact if you would like any further information or help to set up a group in your area.

CrimeStoppers – Tel: 0800 555111 – web: crimestoppers-uk.org The OPCC and Humberside Police actively promote the use of Crime Stoppers for passing information on any type of criminal activity. Crimestoppers guarantee 100% anonymity always which can be really helpful, particularly in small communities.

Crib Service was conducted by Martin Adams and Trish Barker (readers). It was very well attended by children and adults. The children helped to tell the story of Christmas. It was well done and they were very well behaved. The children thoroughly enjoyed singing Jingle Bells accompanied by them playing the tambourines and tiny bells at the end of the service. Thank you.
